

Originally from Decatur, Alabama, Jessica Hept received her BA in French with minors in German, International Studies, and Legal Studies at the University of North Alabama in 2015. She then earned her JD at the University of Mississippi School of Law in 2018. While in law school, Jessica was active in moot court competitions on both the Negotiation Board and Trial Advocacy Board. She also participated in the Child Advocacy Clinic. Jessica has been at the Hinds County Public Defender's Office in Jackson, Mississippi since being sworn into practice on September 27, 2018. She now lives in Hinds County with her husband, Kaleb Bailey, in Byram along with their two dogs, Judge and Hades.